Draft of an amendment to the Council Schedule is put up for Consideration, so as to bring the cases of Commissioned officers under Clause(V) of the Schedule.

In this connection it is also submitted that "retirement" of officers is not specifically mentioned in cl. V of the Schedule, though as a rule all cases of retirements ~~of~~ of gazetted officers are being treated as Council matters. Perhaps the word "removal" is ~~exp~~ intended to include "retirement" also. To make the point clear, the word "retirement" may also be perhaps added.

Dewan) 21/1

Submitted to His Highness.

At present cases of appointment, promotion, removal, etc., of only Gazetted Officers come within the purview of Clause (v) of the Council Rules of Business, and are circulated to Council before submission to His Highness for orders. Questions of appointment, promotion, etc., of Commissioned officers in the State Forces are not at present circulated to Council, as they do not come under the category of Gazetted Officers, though such cases are submitted for His Highness's approval.

The Members of Council and I consider that the cases relating to Commissioned Officers may also be treated as Council matter in the same way as those of Gazetted Officers. An addition as under is accordingly proposed to be made to clause (v) of the Council Schedule:-

> "For the purposes of this caluse, Officers holding Commission in the Mysore State Forces will be treated as holding Gazetted posts."

In this connection, it is also proposed to add the word "retirement", in clause (v) of the Schedule so that all cases of retirement of Gazetted Officers may be treated as Council matter. This is only in accordance with the existing practice and the addition proposed is intended to make the rule clearer.

Clause (v), after incorporating the amendments referred to above, will read as follows:-

> "(v) The appointment, retirement, removal, promotion (other than promotion from class to class), withholding of periodical increments, suspension and reduction in pay or rank of officers of all Departments holding Gazetted posts including Amildars and Deputy Amildars. For the purposes of this clause, officers holding Commission in the Mysore State Forces will be treated as holding Gazetted posts."

Gracious approval of His Highness is solicited to the above proposals.
